The Life in Reflection of Curley Jacobs

On the morning of December 9, 2012 the Angel of Silence came into the home of Curley Jacobs. His soul winged its flight from this world of sin, sorrow and pain to a place of eternal rest.

Curley Jacobs was born April 24, 1925 to the late Preston and Selener Jacobs in Marksville, Louisiana. He accepted Christ at an early age at Starlight Baptist Church.

There are some lives that disappoint us, some impressions of character which we have to revise in later years, but the impression that was formed of Curley Jacobs, when you first met him, remained unchanged to the end of his life.

He enjoyed hunting pheasant, fishing and a good game of poker, but most of all he enjoyed quiet time with his family. He will be missed!

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Mary Dyer-Jacobs; one daughter, Gloria Grisby (Dale) of Merced, CA; son, Kenneth Jacobs of Richmond, CA; four grandchildren; two sisters, Indiana Lewis of Merced, CA and Sylvinia Porter of Los Angeles, CA; two brothers, Curtis Jacobs of Santa Ana, CA and Calvin P. Jacobs of Los Angeles, CA; one sister-in-law, Cora Lee Jacobs of Martinville, Louisiana and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many dear friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now,
He set me free.

To Thank You

We acknowledge with sincere appreciation every act of kindness shown and expression of comfort extended during the passing of our loved one. May God continue to bless each of you.
